STUDY HALL FINALS WEEK!

Study Hall is a place where at students from the CSD can study quietly in the library during finals week. Meaghan from Beyond Access will be hosting the event with little goodies to help you get through final weeks successfully.
